Theme for 2025: Songs of Chicago

Class 1. Lake Shore Drive by Aliotta Haynes Jeremiah

Line Design Showing Actual Water. Line is the direction in which a viewer's eye travels when they look at a floral design: it gives a sense of movement around, through and out of a design. The designer may want the viewer's eye to be drawn in and around the design. They may want the viewer's eye to be drawn in then led away to a focal point.

Class 2. Chicago Is My Kind of Town by Frank Sinatra

A Multi-Rhythmic Design is a creative design with an emphasis on two (2) or more rhythms in the design with one (1) rhythm dominating. Lines create two (2) or more separate and distinct rhythms, each creating a different pattern and movement unlike the other.

Class 3. Take me Back to Chicago by Chicago

Reflecting Design is a creative design containing reflective materials giving back images of light to the viewer. The reflective materials are an integral part of the overall design. Staging in front or on a mirror is not acceptable. Remember dahlias should be a dominant part of the design.

Class 4. Saturday in the Park by Chicago

A line design showing wood (branches or driftwood) but dahlias need to be dominant.

Class 5. Twist and Shout by the Beatles

(song used in parade scene in Ferris Bueller's Day Off)

A design showing dahlias with twisted petals.

Class 6. Chicago (That Toddlin' Town) by Frank Sinatra and Nelson Riddle

A design for junior designers under age 16.

Class 7. Sweet Home Chicago by Robert Johnson

Small and Sweet. Mass Design no greater than 8 inches in any direction. Mass floral design is a style of floral arrangement that uses a large amount of plant material to create a colorful, cohesive mass of flowers and foliage. The emphasis is on the whole arrangement, rather than on individual flowers. These designs will be staged at eye level on a wooden bench or block of wood covered with a tablecloth. Four designs will take up one six-foot table.
